

corrected

another boring entertainment another walking home alone up come displeasing thoughts and feelings that i should reap what i have sown repressing anything that's in me turned out not to be the best way there ain't no insuperable dungeon that would never let it free one day

wish i had done more things right so far
wish i had done more things right so far
wish i had done more things right so far
but i believe that all the bad things still can be corrected

another damaging decision if i could call it that at all do i have problems with my vision? or is my self-esteem too small?

but i believe that all the bad things

*up the mountain, down the sea with serious absurdity where it takes me i will go watch myself, learn and grow hidden deep inside of me behind all that apathy i'll excavate what's long neglected until i stand corrected
