

snowmen

those snowmen they stand in the garden motionless figures in white they ain't got no toes but a carrot for a nose and sometimes a broom by their side molded into existence created in a winterly mood they don't know why they're here but that doesn't cause them fear and they're not ashamed that they are nude

ADMIRABLY ABSENT
THE FROZEN ANTITHESIS TO ALL OUR HECTIC RUSH
let patience guide us through the winter let patience guide us through life you will never hear them talking and if you do, you'd better see a shrink as a matter of fact they have no intellect man, they are lucky i think

THE FROZEN ANTITHESIS TO ALL OUR PURPOSEFULNESS
let patience guide us through the winter

it's springtime, the sun-rays come out again the well-known transformation sets in soon they'll be what they were:
gaseous water in the air that's how it always has been so hooray for those brave little snowmen those symbols of the cycle of life we are born, then we die and we do not know why fuck it fellas, that is just life!
