

TAXI

Here in my taxi I am the king of the street.
Know every corner, the fastest way is guaranteed.
I'll get you anywhere. As long as you can pay.
I'll bring you anywhere. You just have to say.

Why don't you get in?
Why don't you get in?
Let's drive a bit through the city.
Why don't you get in?
Why don't you get in?
Let's drive a bit through the city tonight.

Here in my taxi I watch the world from inside.
Streetlights are flashing by. It's an illuminated night.
I'll get you anywhere. As long as you can pay.
I'll bring you anywhere. You just have to say.

Why don't you get in?
Why don't you get in?
Let's drive a bit through the city.
Why don't you get in?
Why don't you get in?
Let's drive a bit through the city tonight.

*And when I'm coming home. I find myself alone.
Read a book or watch tv. Smoke a joint or trink some tea.
Just trying to get the customers problems out of my head.*

Why don't you get in?
Why don't you get in?
(...)